Local and national leaders present pediatric topics in their area of specialty during this monthly series.

OBJECTIVES:

At the conclusion of this activity, the participant will be able to:

- 1 Identify youth suicide as a national and global public health threat with significant disparities.
- 1 Maintain and advance knowledge and skills related to pediatric conditions seen in our region.
- 2 Increase collaboration across professions of the healthcare team.
- 2 Describe research on suicide prevention in the medical setting and how it is applied to improve efficiency and effectiveness in clinical settings.
- 3 Describe how suicide risk screening can be feasibly implemented as part of clinical pathways in clinical settings.

CRITERIA FOR SUCCESSFUL COMPLETION:

- Record attendance as directed
- Fully participate in the activity
- Complete the evaluation by the deadline shared at the activity

ACCREDITATION:

Continuing Medical Education (CME)

The Children's Mercy Hospital is accredited by the Missouri State Medical Association to provide continuing medical education for physicians.

The Children's Mercy Hospital designates this Live Activity for a maximum of 1.00 AMA PRA Category 1 Credit(s)[™]. Physicians should claim only the credit commensurate with the extent of their participation in the activity.

American Board of Anesthesiology (ABA)

This activity contributes to the CME component of the American Board of Anesthesiology's redesigned Maintenance of Certification in Anesthesiology[™] (MOCA[®]) program, known as MOCA 2.0[®]. Please consult the ABA website, www.theABA.org, for a list of all MOCA 2.0 requirements.

American Board of Pathology (ABPath)

Successful completion of this CME activity, which includes participation in the evaluation component, enables the participant to earn up to 1.00 Lifelong Learning credit in the American Board of Pathology (ABPath) Continuous Certification program. It is the CME provider's responsibility to submit learner completion information to the ACCME for the purpose of granting ABPath credit.
